IEST Reading Challenge

Reading for Pleasure

Choose a fiction book you find interesting or exciting. Write the author and the title in the spreadsheet and add the date you start the challenge.

Read for 15 minutes each day without interruption. Set the alarm on your phone, put it out of reach and read until the alarm goes off 15 minutes later.

Write down the pages you have read. This is not a speed competition. If you read slowly and immerse yourself in the story, you are doing it right. After two weeks (14 days), you hand in your reading diary in the library. You will get a Merit!
